

Old Newsboys' Goodfellow Fund of Detroit Staff

Executive Director – Sari Klok-Schneider

Sari Klok-Schneider has been with the organization since 1997. She is involved in all aspects of the day-to-day operations of the Detroit Goodfellows. She works with all Goodfellow committees to ensure that the programs for the children are implemented each year and that the funds are raised to achieve those goals. She reports directly to the Board of Directors. Ms. Klok-Schneider is a graduate of the University of Michigan. She previously worked in fundraising and special events management at the Detroit Zoological Society and the Detroit Institute of Arts. She can be reached at 586-775-6139 or via email at sarigoodfellows@gmail.com.

Director of Philanthropy - Moira J. Mahoney, CPP

Moira Mahoney's career has included work with educational and religious non-profits. She has worked in multiple development tracks in Detroit and San Francisco serving as a Vice President for Development, a Major-Gifts Officer and Special Events Director. With a development CPP certification as a Certified Program Planner, Moira works with high-level donors, sponsorships, corporate and foundation grants, gift planning, and fosters new relationships in the community to support the Detroit Goodfellows mission as well as donor stewardship. Moira holds two business degrees from Detroit College, with additional overseas studies in international business. Ms. Mahoney joined the Goodfellows in November 2019. She can be reached at 313-418-7011 mmahoney@detroitgoodfellows.org

Administrative Assistant – Jeanne Vanderford

Ms. Vanderford has been with the Detroit Goodfellows since 2000. She is responsible for all clerical work for the organization and manages the donor database and recipient family database. She can be reached at jeannegoodfellows@comcast.net

March 2020